Maximum of two elective subjects to be taken from other programmes at HKU. Students may take up to two electives from Master of Science in Business Analytics, Master of Economics, Master of Finance, Master of Accounting, Master of Science in Marketing, Master of Global Management and/or Master of Finance in Financial Technology.
The Full-time MBA Programme is an intensive one year programme with three tracks. All students spend nine months in Hong Kong, with field trips to Mainland China. Then, depending on the track they choose, they get to spend four months in London or New York, or Hong Kong/Shanghai.

1. London Track with London Business School (4-5 electives)
2. New York Track with Columbia Business School (4-5 electives)

These are not exchange programmes as all students in the cohort are assured the opportunity to study at London/Columbia Business School to derive maximum benefits from the London/New York experience in terms of education, exposure, and networking with their MBA/EMBA students.

3. Hong Kong Track (6 electives at HKU)

Students who prefer to have a deeper understanding of Asia business will take all of their courses at HKU, with our Part-time MBA students who are mostly working in middle to senior management positions with regional responsibilities. Working together with such experienced individuals gives Full-time MBA students great insights into the region and helps them connect with potential employers.

4. China Track with Fudan University (4-5 electives)

Students on the China track have the option to take China-focused electives at Fudan University. Our partnership with a top-ranked university in Mainland China provides students with access to all of the University’s facilities and the large pool of IMBA alumni in Mainland China.
Reputation & Recognition
HKU has established a solid reputation as a premier international university and a member of the global family of universities.

An Expanded Global Vision with the London & New York Connection
The unique partnerships with world-renowned business schools such as the London Business School and Columbia Business School provide our students with unmatched opportunities in terms of educational experience and networking.

Regional Perspective in the Heart of Asia with a Strong China Focus
Our dual focus on Asia and China business renders the programme highly relevant to the wider region’s dynamic and ever-evolving business environment. The China focus is achieved through regional case studies, field trips, seminars, and conferences as well as company visits.

1-Year Intensive Programme
Being part of our intensive MBA Programme, you will only have to unplug from your career for a year. Our flexible structure also allows you to tailor your perfect MBA journey by selecting your favourite electives and going on the suitable track that fits your career goals.

China Immersion Programme
Designed to showcase the best of Chinese culture and business practices in China by providing experience to foster academic learning, inspire enlightening conversations, and offer some hands-on activities. Students will receive an eye-opening opportunity to learn about the vast diversity of China’s economy and world’s leading technology.

Case-Based Approach
The HKU MBA Programme adopts an experiential learning approach, with extensive use of business cases that enable students to become effective problem-solvers and decision-makers. These cases are written by our own professors and published by our renowned Asia Case Research Centre (www.acrc.hku.hk).
Personalised Career Services
Throughout your MBA journey, the Career Development & Training team will work closely with you to provide career advice and guidance, enhance your professional and personal skills, and equip you with connections to relevant corporate and recruitment partners.

Entrepreneurial Incubation Lab
HKU MBA partners with Cyberport Academy, part of Hong Kong’s largest start-up incubation hub to conduct the Entrepreneurial Incubation Lab course. The course aims to cultivate capabilities of start-up founders to identify market opportunities and help students build up an entrepreneur’s mentality that leverages the training. It also engages them in practical workshops to develop investor desks and present start-up pitches.

Small Class Size & Collaborative Culture
The programme’s relatively small class size, along with the diversity of profiles among class members, allows for extensive interaction and collaboration.

Diverse & Contemporary Elective Selection
Your MBA electives are often taught by industry practitioners and experienced professors to bring in real-world experiences and help solidify your management framework. Some of our elective courses include ESG, Sustainable Finance and Impact Investing, Managing Black Swans, Artificial Intelligence for Business Leaders, Insights and Lessons – Reflections of a CEO, and Online Business Strategy.

Extensive Alumni Network
HKU has an alumni community of more than 270,000, providing leadership services in various industries such as retail, banking, technology, commerce, government, education, and ESG.

Alumni Lifelong Learning
HKU Business School offers its alumni the chance to enrol in one elective course per academic year to equip them with new knowledge, further strengthen their MBA networks, and stay connected to our business school. No course enrolment fee is charged.

Mentorship Programme
This programme connects current students to senior professionals to build mentor-mentee relationships. Students can obtain real-life business knowledge from senior executives and top business leaders. The real case sharing and professional insights from experienced mentors offer students an engaging and enriching learning experience.

Immigration Arrangements for Non-Local Graduates (IANG)

Non-local students who have graduated from a degree programme in a locally-accredited university in Hong Kong are eligible to remain in Hong Kong for an initial period of 24 months under IANG without other conditions of stay and would be able to take up employment during this period. Those admitted under IANG may subsequently apply for an extension of stay if they are employed or have secured an offer of employment.

No Objection Letter (NOL) & Internship

According to Hong Kong’s immigration regulations, a non-local student enrolled in a full-time locally-accredited degree with a study period of no less than one academic year may take up a curriculum-related internship endorsed by the institution where the student is enrolled.

David Kim
“Before joining HKU MBA, I was always questioning the direction of my career. While I was working for a Korean conglomerate, I needed new momentum and, most of all, I wanted to experience various cultures and make friends from different backgrounds.”

Aline Herth
“Asia, and especially Greater China, play a central role in the global technology and commodity market, making it absolutely vital for me to know and understand said marketplace. Hong Kong is a great entry point.”

Jose Manuel Rodriguez Moreno
“The variety of classes in the HKU MBA programme, the project that we worked together on, and the awards that we won have become a tilting point of my career.”

Sarah Atiq
“We are an incredibly diverse class. Another great support system has been the Career Development Team and we have been lucky enough to be introduced to industry experts and leaders in multiple industries.”

Jose Eduardo Coello Kunz
“I was working in finance in Mexico City before I decided to take the leap and study an MBA at The University of Hong Kong. I have always been a person that likes to push myself outside of my comfort zone, but felt that many universities I looked at in the US and Europe wouldn’t have pushed me.”
“The reason I joined HKU MBA is because it is well known to Mainland students that the teaching quality and reputation of The University of Hong Kong are very high.”

There is much of value that an MBA programme can offer. I can tell prospective MBA candidates with confidence that the MBA is suitable for those who are seeking to switch careers.”

“There is much of value that an MBA programme can offer. I can tell prospective MBA candidates with confidence that the MBA is suitable for those who are seeking to switch careers.”

“Coming from a background in government affairs, I decided to pursue an MBA to build a broader and deeper understanding of what it takes to create and implement a successful corporate strategy focusing on Asia.”

“Aakriti Jain

There are a number of major takeaways I gained from the HKU MBA. These include time management, efficient networking, and the importance of teamwork. I can apply these takeaways to my current role working with multi-client teams.”

Sam Greenwood

“Everyone tells you you’ll meet interesting people studying for an MBA. However, being mentored by Savio Kwan, the former President and COO of Alibaba, and being able to have coffee with him once a month is beyond anything I could have dreamt of.”
