Our Hong Kong track focuses on business in Asia. Full-time MBA students will take all of their courses at HKU alongside our experienced part-time students, offering great insights into the region and helping connect them with potential employers.

Students on the China track have the option to take China-focused electives at Fudan University. Our partnership with a top-ranked university in Mainland China provides students with access to all of the University’s facilities and the large pool of IMBA alumni in Mainland China.
HIGHLIGHTS

Small Class Size & Collaborative Culture in our 1-Year Intensive Programme
Create your ideal MBA journey. Our flexible 1-year programme allows students the opportunity to select your favourite electives and choose a track that suits your career goals.

Personalised Career Services
The Career Development and Training Team provide career advice, help enhance your professional and personal skills, and connect you to corporate and recruitment partners.

Regional Perspective in the Heart of Asia with a Strong China Focus
Focusing on both Asia and China, this programme provides students with a deep understanding of the wider region’s dynamic and ever-evolving business environment.

An Expanded Global Vision with the London & New York Connection
Our partnerships with renowned business schools provide students with unmatched educational and networking opportunities.
Case-Based Approach
The HKU MBA Programme adopts an experiential learning approach that helps students become effective problem solvers. The business cases we use are written by HKU professors and published by the Asia Case Research Centre (www.acrc.hku.hk).

Entrepreneurial Incubation Lab
HKU MBA partners with Cyberport Academy to conduct the Entrepreneurial Incubation Lab course. It cultivates start-up founders’ capabilities, identifies market opportunities, and helps students build an entrepreneur’s mentality. It also engages them in practical workshops to develop investor desks and present start-up pitches.

China Immersion Programme
Showcasing the best of Chinese culture and business practices, students will learn about the vast diversity of China’s economy and world leading technology.

Mentorship Programme
This programme connects current students with senior professionals, giving them access to real-life business knowledge from senior executives and top business leaders.

Alumni Lifelong Learning
Our alumni are given the chance to enrol in one elective course per academic year. No course enrollment fee is charged.

Extensive Alumni Network
HKU’s extensive alumni community work in leadership roles across a variety of industries, such as banking, technology and more.

No Objection Letter (NOL) & Internship

According to Hong Kong's immigration regulations, a non-local student enrolled in a full-time locally-accredited degree with a study period of no less than one academic year may take up a curriculum-related internship endorsed by the institution where the student is enrolled.

IMMIGRATION ARRANGEMENTS for Non-Local Graduates (IANG)

Non-local students who have graduated from a degree programme in a locally-accredited university in Hong Kong are eligible to remain in Hong Kong for an initial period of 24 months under IANG without other conditions of stay and would be able to take up employment during this period. Those admitted under IANG may subsequently apply for an extension of stay if they are employed or have secured an offer of employment.
Jose Manuel Rodriguez Moreno

“The variety of classes in the HKU MBA programme, the project that we worked together on, and the awards that we won have become a tipping point of my career.”

Kazuaki Yamamoto

“Hong Kong was very attractive to me because it is a major financial hub in Asia. The University of Hong Kong is also the most prestigious university in the city and has a very strong focus in finance, and an extensive alumni network.”

---

Aline Herth

“Asia, and especially Greater China, play a central role in the global technology and commodity market, making it absolutely vital for me to know and understand said marketplace. Hong Kong is a great entry point.”

---

James Hughes

“Armed with a BSc in Business Studies, I led support operations in Asia before embarking on the HKU MBA. My aim is to transition into Strategy Consulting or Asset Management, specializing in Financial Services and Technology. The program’s specialized education in strategic finance is helping me achieve my career goals.”

---

Sarah Atiq

“We are an incredibly diverse class. Another great support system has been the Career Development Team and we have been lucky enough to be introduced to industry experts and leaders in multiple industries.”
Aakriti Jain

“Building on my experience in textiles, I chose the HKU MBA to lead the transformation of traditional manufacturing through modernization and digitization. With exposure to an extensive alumni network and professional mentorship opportunities, I’m confident in my ability to achieve my career goals.”

Sam Greenwood

“Coming from a background in government affairs, I decided to pursue an MBA to build a broader and deeper understanding of what it takes to create and implement a successful corporate strategy focusing on Asia.”

Kyoji Fukuda

“There is much of value that an MBA programme can offer. I can tell prospective MBA candidates with confidence that the MBA is suitable for those who are seeking to switch careers.”

Weilun Wang

“There are a number of major takeaways I gained from the HKU MBA. These include time management, efficient networking, and the importance of teamwork. I can apply these takeaways to my current role working with multi-client teams.”

Hong Phuc Nguyen

“Everyone tells you you’ll meet interesting people studying for an MBA. However, being mentored by Savio Kwan, the former President and COO of Alibaba, and being able to have coffee with him once a month is beyond anything I could have dreamt of.”
